

New Patient
Information

NHS

East Suffolk and
North Essex
NHS Foundation Trust

John LeVay Cancer Support and Information Centre, Ipswich Hospital.

Where can you find us?

- Situated within the new Woolverstone Macmillan Centre at Ipswich Hospital
- Ideally placed to allow anyone attending clinic appointments, radiotherapy, chemotherapy outpatients or the ward easy access to information and support.

What do we offer?

- Practical advice
- Emotional support
- A variety of supportive and educational initiatives
- Referrals to specialist services
- Complementary therapies
- Counselling

Practical advice, including...

- Macmillan Benefits Advice Service
- Coping with hair loss
- Travel insurance
- Accessing support in the community
- Literature/books for children
- Transport options

Support groups and Educational Opportunities

- H.O.P.E. courses – patients/carers
- Health and Wellbeing events
- Up and Active exercise referral scheme
- Monthly swimming group for children
- Quarterly Art workshops
- Book group
- Support Groups

Patient Experience

“The Centre has been a real sanctuary for both myself and my family”

'The Centre Team and the supportive initiatives I have engaged in have been a real life line for me'

There is always someone available to listen

No enquiry is too small

The John Le Vay Cancer Support and Information Centre, Woolvestone Wing, Ipswich Hospital
Tel: 01473 715748
Opening hours 9am – 4pm